

Signature

SITE SPECIFIC ORIENTATION - RIVER ROUGE

This form is to be completed by each person. This orientation is valid for the calendar year only.

Welcome to Carmeuse Lime & Stone's River Rouge Operation. Your safety during your time with us is our primary concern. In order for a safe, injury free stay, all contractors, visitors, vendors, and haulers must adhere to the following standards.

MSHA ID Number: 20-00362

	Before Entering		When applicable every	employee must be trained in LOTOTO.
	You must sign in and out each time you arrive and leave the site. Carmeuse reserves the right to check identification and to search any person or property any time present on the property Regulatory Requirements		Each employee working applied and tag providing Each lockout must be verified to the control of	on the equipment, must have their individual lock g company, employee, and a phone number. rified by a tryout – an attempt to start equipment. used, a checklist identifying all individual
	This facility is regulated by the Mine Safety and Health Administration (MSHA.) Persons performing work on the property are required to comply with MSHA's training requirements under 30 CFR Part 46, and Standards) 000	equipment being locked Emergency stops or pull Violation of LOTOTO po	out must be attached to the lockbox. cords cannot be used for LOTOTO. licy is grounds for immediate removal from site. tted only for troubleshooting. When energized under 30 CFR Part 56. This facility is covered by Federal Maritime Security regulations. Any time a vessel is at the dock, you must be accompanied by a TWIC carrying escort to enter the area. Unauthorized vehicles or persons are never		troubleshooting is perfor flash protective clothing	med, insulated gloves, tools and protective arc permitted within 50 feet of river shoreline. Seafarer's access has been provided. For transport, please call the control room at 313-849-9268 extension 1228. If transportation is unavailable,	0	Carmeuse excavation of Prior to performing any of Carmeuse.	necklist must be completed. critical lift, a lift plan must be approved by use the seafarer's access route. Smoking is prohibited inside of any building or structure on site, or where		remove debris from their	d to keep their work areas clean and orderly and to work area upon completion of a job.
	prohibited by signage. Use, impairment, or possession of alcohol or illicit drugs will result in		Ger	d to clean up lunch rooms and rest rooms after use. neral Safety Requirements immediate removal from the property. The State of Michigan prohibits electrical wiring to be performed by anyone but a state licensed electrician.		shift. An examination re	red by MSHA to examine its work area prior to each cord must include: Name of examiner, shift and date that each hazard was corrected.
	Personal Protective Equipment Minimum personal protective equipment at all times: Hardhat; Minimum 6-inch high steel-toed boots; Safety glasses with		Chicago-style airline cor Compressed gas cylinde	nectors must be pinned or secured. ers must be secured, caps must be in place during uges must be protected from damage with collar.
	side shields; ANSI class 2 high visibility apparel. No jewelry or rings if they present an entanglement or injury risk due to			ff and lines bled when unattended. when grinding or using a power washer.
	ladder climbing or carrying objects. Long pants required. Long-sleeve shirts recommended in dusty areas.		hazards associated with	LAM method. Prior to any task, STOP, LOOK for the task, ANALYZE to determine risk, then
ш	Additional PPE as required by signage or site contact; such as: Respiratory protection; Hand protection; Hearing protection;		MSHA regulations requi	e risk of injury to an acceptable level. re that all electrical cords, tools, and equipment be
	Goggles or faceshield; Arc Flash Protection. A United States Coast Guard approved personal flotation device required any time there is potential to fall into water.		Caution and danger tape	inuity prior to initial use service and annually after. e are only to notify others that a hazard exists. uired when protecting against a physical hazard.
	Fall arrest equipment is required any time you are exposed to a fall. Hazard Communication		Barricades and warning	devices must be provided with a tag indicating zard, and 2.) The protective measures required.
	Lime can irritate skin and respiratory passages. Mixing water with lime creates sufficient heat to cause chemical and thermal burns to skin.		Contractors must provid grippers, and other appr	e snow removal and de-icing of travelways, boot opriate weather-related clothing when needed.
	Always keep skin covered and remove dust frequently. Lime can cause serious eye injuries. Always wear tight-fitting safety		crossing truck scale. Give	e or shop areas, use extreme caution when the trucks the right-of-way.
	glasses or goggles. If you get lime dust in your eyes, immediately flush for 15 minutes at shop		loadout buildings. Use of	s located on the ground between the kiln and caution when walking or driving in this area.
	or control room eyewash station. Always use handrails when ascending or descending stairs and avoid		without warning.	amber dropouts. Hot dust may fall periodically contractors and visitors is across Marion Avenue.
	walking on loose stone on walkways or uneven ground. Carmeuse uses an online database to house all of our Safety Data Sheets. Contact any Carmeuse employee for assistance.		Only contractor compan	y vehicles necessary for work are permitted in onal vehicles are not permitted inside the facility.
	You are responsible to have SDS's readily available for any chemical that you bring onto Carmeuse property.			by closed circuit cameras 24/7. Emergency Response
	Mobile Equipment Safety There is a large amount of equipment operating in a small space. Always			ed Emergency Response flip charts for quick e located in all offices and common areas.
	stay in main areas and take extra precautions at blind corners, intersections, and congested areas.		For non-life threatening	ance assistance, dial 9-911 from any telephone. injuries or medical conditions, contact a Carmeuse
ш	Follow the Wait for the Wave method to help reduce risk during pedestrian and mobile equipment interactions: O Always stop, get the operator's attention with a wave, and point to			e. If you are unsure of the extent of an injury or sexperiencing chest pain, head injury, or section 0.011 indicate your intended direction of travel. The operator will stop, acknowledge your intent with a wave back, and		The River Rouge operat	ion have CPR, first aid, and AED employees on yee or call extension 1228 for assistance.
	indicate that it is safe for you to proceed. Prior to crossing the railroad tracks into the stockpile area, radio the loader		First aid kits are located	in office, lunchroom, and control room. There are is in the lunch room, and one in the control room.
	operator to communicate your intent. The radial stacker in the stockpile area is programmed to start and run		Portable type ABC fire e	xtinguishers are located throughout the facility. e incipient stage, follow the PASS method.
	automatically. Always stay clear of stacking path. There is a tunnel conveyor with 8 live feeders under the limestone		In the event of an evacu notified by radio. Proceed	ation, an alarm will sound and personnel will be ed immediately to the flag pole behind the shop.
	stockpile. Do not walk or drive near feeder locations. Always stop, look, and listen for rail traffic prior to crossing tracks.		personnel will be notified	shelter alert is issued, the alarm will sound and I by radio. Severe weather shelters at the River
	A pre-use checklist is required prior to placing any mobile equipment into service each shift.		material tunnels.	er pit, locker room, kiln drive pier rooms, or raw
	Always sound horn prior to moving equipment to warn others. Seat belts must be worn at all times in all equipment. Whenever mobile equipment is parked and unattended on the property: Controls in neutral or park position; All attachments on the ground;			management immediately. Rapid spill containment e. Spill kits are located by burner building, used oil n office, and LKD silo. Conclusion
	Parking brake set; Wheels chocked. Always stay away from suspended loads. Taglines must be used. Never		Rouge operation. Your	ake safety very seriously at Carmeuse's River safety during your visit is our primary concern use elevated attachments such as forklift forks as a work platform. Even if hands-free, cell phone use is prohibited while driving. Fall protection required any time you are working from an aerial platform.		contained in this briefing provided by Carmeuse r	d Haulers are expected to comply with all items , other written instructional material, or direction epresentatives. Additionally, you are expected to
	On-Site Work If you are performing specialized work on site, such as confined space or hot work, specialized permits will be required. Discuss with your contact.		covered in this briefing of	e Federal, State, and Local regulations whether or not. esult in your removal from the property, cancellation
	Prior to guard removal or placing any part of your body in a position where it could be injured if the equipment starts, lockout, tagout, tryout (LOTOTO) must be applied.		of contracts, or other con	rective action as appropriate. use representative for clarification of any
1. You have received this briefing and understand all items contained herein; 2. Compliance with any Carmeuse or government regulation(s) whether listed here or not are mandatory at all times; 3. Failure to comply with any of the above may result in immediately removal from the site.
Visitor's Company Date
Name of Visitor (print)		Ca	armeuse Contact

Duration of Training

Carmeuse Lime and Stone – River Rouge Operation

